Please note there will be no After-Church Café at The Oasis today.

Mission meeting with Tim Heaton (AIM) on Thursday 30 May at The Carey Centre at 7:45pm (pizza served from 7pm).

From June 15th to July 6th, Caleb Martins, a student at Union School of Theology (Bridgend) will be on a placement at Carey. If you would like to have him round for a meal during that time, please let Rich know via email at Richard@careybaptistchurch.org.uk

In James's "Prayer Points" on 9 May he mentioned that we should pray for "Persecuted Christians everywhere, especially in Sri Lanka". Various members in Carey are in contact with the Lanka Evangelical Fellowship of Churches. Carey is intending to send some money to them to enable the support of Christians in the aftermath of the bombings. If you would like to give something please give to Carey in the normal way and earmark it "Sri Lanka". For more details about this appeal see <https://www.care-srilanka.org/april-2019/>

There is a large amount of lost property in the Kennet Room most likely from SSB children over the past couple of years. Please take a look and collect any items belonging to you!

The next Women's Breakfast is 29 June – Esther Matthews will speak on "Living in the shadow of the cross – knowing the joy and freedom of God's grace." The cost is £3 (on the door) - please contact Caroline Davies (c.a.davies@sky.com) to book a place.

Advance notice: Summer BBQ, Saturday afternoon 6th July, Basildon Village Hall. More details coming soon!
